QUARRELING AND RECONCILIATION.

Two little folks of tender age, Two little hearts so full of rage That love forgotten lies,
And kindly thoughts are all asleep, While looks that make the angels weep Are in two pairs of eyes.

Two little tongues that try to say Such words of bitterness to-day, Instead of happy mirth,
That morning fills the air above, Where angels dwell in peace and love And wish the same on earth.

Two little faces hot with shame, Two little whispers "Oh to blame!"
Some tears that follow this:
And then a rush of little feet That noisy mouths may quickly meet To have a loving kiss.

Two little folks who smiling stand Now heart to heart and hand to hand Obeying love's dear voice, Methinks I hear some fluttering wings A heavenly voice that softly sings
"The angels now rejoice!"

CAPITAL CULLINGS.

Our Correspondent at Washington Writes an Interesting Communication.

"Honor to whom honor is due" is evidently the motto of Representative Hooker, of Mississippi, who, although a Democrat, does not forget that he is also an American, and so many of his party do. In a short speech in the House this week Mr.
Hooker paid a high tribute to American diplomacy as conducted under the present Administration. He said it was diplomacy which had settled our Chinese difficulties and the Behring Sea controversy, and that fortunately for the country it had the position of Secretary of State in a man of such large and diplomatic ability that he had settled these questions by diplomacy. Child had been compelled to salute the flag she had insulted and to make preparation. Salubrity had been compelled to renew the medals and that in accomplishing these results the Secretary of State had been aided by the ministrations of Child and Great Britain—Hons. Patrick Egan and Robt. T.
Lincoln. He said that Mr. Blaine had shown himself to be a great Statesman by the manner in which he had treated these questions.

Again this week the Republicans of the House, under the able leadership of ex-Speaker Reed, demonstrated that it is easy under the present rules to tie up the House, unless the Democrats keep a phalanx of their own members constantly on the floor, which they found it impossible to do, notwithstanding the large number of Democrats in the House.

Senator Hale, who is a member of the Senate Committee on Appropriations which has reported large additions to the Naval appropriation bill, thinks the Senate will endorse the increase in the appropriations for new ships and that it will also insist upon the House agreeing to its amendments, knowing that such action will be justified by the public sentiment of the country. He said on the subject:
"There is a universal sentiment throughout the country in favor of further additions to the navy, and the recent diplomatic experiences we have had with Foreign Nations ought to teach us the necessity of being prepared for trouble."

It may now be set down as certain that no further effort will be made in Congress to have the remains of Gen.
Grant brought from New York to Washington. The abandonment of the idea was caused by the opposition of Mrs. Grant to the removal, and by the increasing belief that New York will raise the money to erect the monument, the cornerstone of which was laid on Wednesday of this week. Senator Manderson, who since the death of Senator Plumb, has been in charge of the Plumb resolution providing for the removal, says it will never be called up.

Recent Democrats are unanimous in condemning the action of Representative Enloe, who having made such a miserable failure in his attempt to blacken the good name of Gen. Grant, lost his head entirely and so forgot the manners of a gentleman as to apply the words "you are a liar" to Gen.
Grant, and to attempt to make a personal attack on that gentleman. The name Enloe has already become a synonym of blackguardism.

The President and the other principal members of the Administration and of Congress who attended the laying of the cornerstone of the Grant monument in New York returned here thoroughly impressed with the idea that the monument will be rapidly pushed to completion.

will not fill the bill in the matrimony.

VIEW OF HARTFORD.

The Town Described by a Visitor Within its Gates.

"Oh, what a nice large city the town of Hartford is," said a friend of mine the other day. "Just take the Boulevard from Beaver Dam to Hartford, the nice, level road, with its many green trees on either side; some of them even planted or laid in the middle of the chaussée. See the pretty ponds you find ever twenty-five steps, with small and large bridges, which are put up so conveniently that they turn upside down, whenever they feel like it, and no expense for keeping them in order. Particular notice did I take of the so-called 'Williams high, a light,' as he proposed, 'named after the beautiful spot in Germany, where Napoleon the Third was imprisoned in 1872. This reminded me,' he exclaimed, 'of the late German-French war, and in connection with this, I saw the horses, which tried to pull the stage from the railroad station to this town, having war with those hills, ponds, or mud-holes, as they generally call them in this part of the country.' 'But the roads will be good,' I answered, 'wherever the rain stops,' to which he replied, 'that no doubt Hartford would be better whenever the roads were crossed by the Henderson State Line. Yes, that's what brought me here,' he said—the State Line. 'I heard you people voted the tax on it; you even had some of the roads for this Lane graded. More than that, you paid expenses to the surveyor, who had no other job ahead; you talked about it, excited the whole county, painted out how nice you would take care of the traveling people, you built and refined a new hotel, took day and night boarders, tried to keep the dogs and drunkards from the street; turned your horses and mules loose in order to have some accident on your streets—established with the latter an Accident Insurance agency; kept law and order meetings, and still your railroad is out of sight! But, patience, she will come. I will take the bonds,' he said, 'to New York, I can sell them to some fool, and if not, I will go to see England's syndicates and let them rule the railroad. They buy everything else, why can't they buy your bonds?'

I took this friend of mine around town, introduced him to our good citizens; he shook hands with our bran-new man, he liked him and all our people. 'Everybody seems to be busy,' he said, 'except those who are doing nothing.' 'Oh,' I exclaimed, 'all those who sit around don't have to work, they draw a pension or are waiting to draw one' (it was examination day.)

I took him to our mills and the same night he dreamed about the Niagara falls, high waters, buck waters and even about those waters which he had seen on our streets, accumulating from light showers.

He said he never saw a town lit up better at night than Hartford, but the electric light seemed to effect his vision. The reason for it, there were so many talking about it, and very few really to take it in use. 'What do you use water power for?' he asked me, and I being afraid that he would talk about us, told him that what water we did not use for the mills we save for a fire. It seemed to amuse him that we have such a large crowd in town (it was the day when we had two extra monkeys and organs in Hartford.) He tried our sirlin steak at the table and expressed himself as to the fact that such a steak he never eat before. 'Yes, we raise good cows,' I answered. Our jail, he could not understand why we needed one while this is a temperance town and everybody wants to be the best, but I told him that the county had too much money at one time and thought it best to invest the same in public buildings and not repair the side-walks and college fence.

He saw our College boys beating the court house clock in base ball and invited them to do so again. He saw our town lots, waiting for somebody to speculate, and with the promise that when he has crossed the ocean and at home, that he will do all he can for Hartford and try to import a Chinese laundry.

THE JUDGE WAS MERCIFUL.

The vag was before the police judge on the usual charge, and it was not the first time either. On this occasion, however, he was seedier than ever and the color on his nose was several shades more crimson than it had been at any previous appearances.

"Unl um!" reflected the Judge, as he held his nose and glanced over the culprit, "so you are here again?"
"Yes, yer honor," drizzled the prisoner.

"Well, have you any valid objections to my giving you a cumulative sentence, on general principles, of say, six months at the rocks?"

"I—I haint, Judge, yer honor," he stammered, "ceptin' I'm a good Democrat, yer honor, an' it's gettin' round to's election times."

Whatever prompted him to make such a statement in defense, nobody knew, for the Judge was an incompromising Republican, and the reporter of the Democrat paper nudged his Republican rival and offered to bet the drinks that the vag would get twice six months.

"So you are a Democrat?" queried the Court, kindly.

"Ye yer honor," reassured the tramp.

"How long have you been that way?"

"Ever since I was old enough to vote, and now I'm fifty past."

"That makes thirty years at least," mused the Judge reflectively. "Been a Democrat for thirty long years," he said, almost sullenly, and then brightening, he continued: "Well, I haven't the heart to make your burdens any heavier so I'll just cut that six months down to four, and let you go at that. Make it four months, Mr. Clerk," and when Court adjourned the Democratic reporter had to pay for the drinks.

"Golden Medical Discovery" cures those diseases which come from blood impurities—scrofula and skin diseases, sores and swellings.

But does it? It's put up by the thousands of gallons, and sold to hundreds of thousands. Can it cure as well as though it had been compounded just for you?

Its makers say that thousands of people who have had Tetters and Salt-rheum, Eczema and Erysipelas, Carbuncles and Sore Eyes, Thick Neck and Enlarged Glands, are well today because they use it.

Suppose that this is so. Suppose that a quick-witted man was far-seeing enough to know that to cleanse the blood was to cleanse the life.

Suppose that by many experiments, and after many failures, he discovered this golden key to health and that his faith in it for you is so strong that you can go to your druggist, buy a bottle, and if it doesn't help you, you can get your money returned—cheerfully. Will you try it?

The remedy to save faith in, is the remedy the makers themselves have faith in.

ROSINE.

April 25.—The citizens of this place were serenaded early Monday morning, by the Italians, with their monotoneous hand organs, and their monkeys.

Miss Leta Ragland has been very ill, but is somewhat better at present.
Miss Lucy Townsend visited Mrs.
Dr. Wedding one day last week.

Miss Belle Whittinghill is at home again.

Born, to the wife of Chas. Talley, a girl.

Mrs. Will Lewis gave the little folks an Easter party. The children had a grand time running and scrambling in the bushes, hunting the nests.
Mabel Hocker and Kate Watts were the most successful nest-finders.

The Baptists held services at the Schoolhouse last Saturday evening and Sunday at 11 a. m. Rev. Jim Davis preached.

The Union Sunday School meets at the Methodist Church in the afternoon, prayer meeting at the Methodist Church last night.

HAYNEVILLE.

Farmers are beginning to plant corn.

Rev. H. C. Hook, of Hardinsburg, filled his regular appointment at this place last Sunday, and preached a most excellent sermon.

Harvey Winkler and wife were visiting in this neighborhood last week.

FALLS OF ROUGH.

Is a beautiful little village situated on Rough River, in the North-western part of Grayson county bordering on the North by Rough River. On the North she is charmed by the rattling of the wheels and the screaming of the daily trains. Her streets are broad and lovely with few obstructions. The smoke from the manufactory can be seen at all times through the day. Col. L. Green has the largest and only dry goods store at this place.

Several hands are here peeling tan-bark and making crosses. George Krug, while making crosses a few days ago, cut his foot very severely.

Thomas Bond, of Louisville, was here on business a few days ago.

Success to the REPUBLICAN and its many readers is the wish of WILD BILL.

CROMWELL.

Spring has come at last, and it is nothing uncommon to hear of the "dude and dudine" strolling on the banks of the river by moon light.

Miss Lelia Kone, of Morgantown, returned home Saturday after a two weeks visit to friends and relatives.

Miss Alice Edmonds, Beaver Dam, is visiting Mrs. Beatty.

S. K. Newman, Louisville, was shaking hands with the merchants here Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Dr. McKenney and son, Mabryn, are in Rochester this week visiting her parents.

Little Frankie Gillestrap is very low, but hopes are entertained for her recovery.

W. T. Tilford's new store is furnished, and he will commence moving this week. This change will leave a vacant store in the heart of the town, some energetic merchant should go at once, as it is a good store and we only have three dry goods houses here. A town of this size should support at least four.

The social at Col Beatty's last week was largely attended.

Miss Fannie Trout, who has been sick for some time, we are glad to say, is improving. Mrs. B. F. Burden is quite sick. A. Kahn is again confined to his bed.

Many of our people are looking as if they were taking the "spring fever."

Water being very high, we have a good many longers this week as well as last.

Hartford Republican

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

J. D. ROGERS, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, MAY 6, 1892.

The Tariff Reformers will have no difficulty in naming a "logical" candidate. The trouble will be to nominate a winning one.

On May the 1st at Anchorage a negro by the name of Henry Ready, without cause, shot and killed a white man by the name of Billman. Ready made his escape but will be lynched if caught.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says all the "good western men" whom the Democrats are considering are renegade Republicans. On the other hand the ones the Republicans have in view have always been sound Republicans and are yet.

The Freedman's Career, a paper published at Owensboro by colored editors, reached our office Tuesday. The Career is ably edited and is a most interesting and useful paper. The colored race can be greatly benefited by such a paper, and they should give it their hearty support.

In Wyoming a civil war has been going on between the Badlanders and the Cattle Kings. Recently a posse, headed by the Cattle Kings, were surrounded by about five hundred Badlanders at the T. A. Ranch, and the Government had to send troops to their relief.

FREDERICK WARD, of the late firm of Grant & Ward, of New York City, who was sent to the Sing Sing penitentiary six years ago, was set free April 30. In youth he had learned the printer's trade, and while in confinement he did the prison printing, and is said to have been one of the most useful prisoners ever confined in that institution.

The Democrats seek to repeal the Sugar Bounty law. They should go the next step and after a bill repealing the duty on sugar, Senator Roger Q. Mills said in Ohio last fall that he would put the duty back on sugar, because it is a revenue tax, owing to the little sugar produced in this country. That is exactly why the Republicans took it off. Mills justifies the Republican action.

The one phenomenon the editor of the Democratic newspapers and the statement of that party can not explain, is the wonderful growth of the United States in the past thirty years, notwithstanding during all, save four years of that time it has been the helpless nation of "Republican misrule and oppression." About the only thing in all those years which has not been improved and developed is the principles of the Democratic party.

The bills the Democrats have offered in Congress will be directed to the country as their platform on the tariff question. Yet the authors of those bills have been frank in their avowal that if the Democrats are given power on that comparatively moderate platform their purpose is to break down the whole tariff system. The action in which the House decided to consider the Blair bill will be pointed to as proof of the moderate sentiment of the Democratic party on the silver question. Yet the overwhelming majority of the Democratic party is known to favor free coinage of silver, and their leaders are frank to acknowledge that if they are put in power at the coming election they will consider themselves authorized to rip up the financial system of the country by passing a free coinage bill. This is the characteristic dishonest and straddling position of the Democratic party for many years.

Sunday School Convention.
The County Sunday School Convention is called to meet in Hartford, June 14th, at which time every Sunday School in Ohio county is requested to be represented.

Much important work is to be done, and a general encouragement of the Sunday School interest of the county is to be attempted. The pastors of the various churches in the county are requested to co-operate with us in this work. Let us have your assistance.
WM. MULLIGAN, Pres.
IDA DUKE, Sec'y.

The public generally invited to attend all those services.

Speaking of Miles Orton's new railroad shows that are to exhibit at Beaver Dam on Wednesday, May 11, an exchange says: "Miles Orton's railroad Circus, Museum, Menagerie and Hippodrome were in town last Monday, and Mendota never was so crowded with its neighboring population. The people turned out en masse to see what proved to be the greatest show of modern times. Each department was so very complete in its vastness that the marvel is how so much can be gotten together and exhibited for so little money. The trick elephant and trick ponies are each worth more to see than the price to the whole show. Every feature is of the best, and all are so unusual and refined as to please the most fastidious. The whole outfit are nice people to do business with, and our only regret is that we can't reasonably expect to exchange compliments oftener than once a year. Miles Orton & Co.'s Shows have left a good impression, and will be heartily welcomed whenever they choose to come and see us again."

King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba.

In connection with John Robinson's 10 big shows combined. This wonderful spectacle has a breadth of effect with surprise and delights. Its gorgeous processions and splendid ballets are incomparable, and nothing so vast or imposing has ever been seen in this country before. We gaze upon the ancient City of Jerusalem and the Temple of Solomon animated with life and glowing with color. It is no mere artificial show, but a vivid and vast realization of life in the time of Solomon. The senses are beguiled by its reality as well as its surpassing beauty and the perfection of its details.
Will exhibit at Beaver Dam, May 25.

ANDERSON'S BAZAAR

Is "clock full" of new, seasonable goods and is offering all of them at prices that make customers buy.

Never before has the Bazaar been able to sell goods as cheap as it is doing this season, and the reason for this is our Mr. S. W. Anderson, who is one of the shrewdest buyers in the State, spent a month this season in New York and other Eastern Markets picking up bargains WHERE DEALERS HAD TO HAVE THE CASH, and as a consequence, he could name his own price on almost every article bought, and would not buy a single article unless it was a bargain.

We can't name prices on everything, but below will quote prices on many articles you need every day, by which you may judge how we are selling other goods. We now offer.

Tobacco canvas at 1 1/2 and 1 1/4.
Heavy Domestic Sheet, yard wide, at 5c.
Heavier " " " " " 5 1/2c.
Sea Island Cotton, nice " " " 7 1/2c.
Bleached Cotton at 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10c.
Woolen Dress Goods at 8, 10 and 12 1/2c and up.
Colored Shirting, checks, 5, 6 1/2 and 8 1/2c.
Heavy stripe Shirting at 8 1/2c with 10c.
Cotton Jeans at 12 1/2, 15, 16 1/2, 17 1/2 and 20c.
Cottonades, heavy at 15, 16 1/2 and 20c.
Corsets, cheap at 50c for 45c.
" worth 50c for 50c.
" 75c " 65c.
" 80c " 80c.
Best R. & C. Corsets at $1.00.

In Dress Goods, Ginghams, figured Lawns, Calicoes, Black and White Wash Fabrics we can please you in both quality and price.

In Ladies Underwear, Cotton Lisle Thread and Silk, we have something to suit all.

In Kid Gloves, Silk Mitts, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Ties, Laces, Ribbons, Buttons, Dress Trimmings, &c., we can please all at correct prices.

For Trunks, Valises and Hand Bags, visit the Bazaar and select from our large stock what you want.

The Bazaar sells only the best solid HONEST LEATHER Shoes for Ladies and Children. See the Kid Oxford for Ladies that we sell for $1.00.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

Has never been rushed as it has this season, but we have the stock and can suit you exactly in both style and price. If you want a hat that is stylish and becoming, call on Sara and she will please you.

Finally, if you need goods and want to save money on your spring bill, visit

Anderson's Bazaar.

Feathers wanted at 45c. per pound.

TAYLOR & CO.

The two Big Shows that will visit our town in the next few days will attract many people. But in the meantime we are attracting the attention of the people far and near by our CASH-PRICE INDUCEMENTS.

Space will not allow us to quote prices, but plain, blunt facts, that cannot be denied. We are under-selling ourselves since we adopted our Cash System.

If you have money to spend, only try and see what we propose to do. We cannot credit anyone, but can save anyone money.

Every Farmer, His Wife, Son and Daughter are invited to bring your WOOL and come and see us for your spring bill of goods. We can do you much good. Don't allow the wool pulled over your eyes by some Merchants that sells on long credit and then have Check and Cash to stand up and say: "We will sell as close as them 'tellers.'" Don't be humbugged any by his song of "we'll accommodate you;" you have paid him many times for such an accommodation in the big profits of credit.

We are going to expect you in to see us in a few days for your Clothing, which never was better nor cheaper from the Children's Jersey Suits up to the finest Men's Suits.

Our Dress Goods and Millinery will be of great interest to you, and with these two lines we feel safe in saying that nobody exceeds us in quality nor equals us in price.

So Come with your WOOL and see
